

Assembly Joint Resolution to Impeach President George W. Bush and Vice President Richard Cheney

WHEREAS, The Rules and Manual of the House of Representatives of the United States of America, officially titled Constitution, Jefferson's Manual and Rules of the House of representatives, contains the fundamental source material describing procedures in the House of Representatives; and

WHEREAS Section 603 of Section LIII of Jefferson's Manual provides that impeachment proceedings in the House of Representatives may be set in motion by charges transmitted from the legislature of a state or territory; and

WHEREAS, The State of Florida and the former territory of Mississippi have established precedent by transmitting charges to the House of Representatives, which in each case resulted in an investigation by a committee of the House of Representatives, and in one case, impeachment proceedings against Judge Charles Swayne of Florida; and

WHEREAS, The actions of George W. Bush in the office of President of the United States of America and Richard Cheney's in the office as Vice President of the United States of America have repeatedly and intentionally violated the Constitution and other laws of the United States of America, causing the people of the State of California to call into question the integrity of President Bush and Vice President Cheney and to believe that the official actions of President Bush and Vice President Cheney have constituted high crimes and misdemeanors; and

WHEREAS, George W. Bush in violation of his constitutional oath to faithfully execute the office of President of the United States and, to the best of his ability, preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and in violation of his constitutional duty to take care that the laws be faithfully executed, committed a felony under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code by conspiring to exceed his constitutional authority to wage war, in that on March 19, 2003, by his order the United States of America invaded the sovereign country of Iraq in direct defiance of the United Nations Security Council and by doing so, violated Article 2 of Chapter 1 of the Charter of the United Nations and Principle VI of the Principles of the Nuremberg Tribunal; and

WHEREAS, George W. Bush and Richard Cheney conspired with others to defraud the United States of America by intentionally misleading Congress and the people of the United States regarding the threat from Iraq in order to justify a war in violation of Section 371 of Title 18 of the United States Code by the following conduct:

1. Overstating the offensive capabilities of Iraq, including that country's supposed possession of weapons of mass destruction, as justification for military action against Iraq;
2. Repeatedly manipulating the sentiments of the people of the United States of America by erroneously linking Iraq with the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001 by Al-Qaeda;
3. Repeatedly claiming that satellite photos of sites in Iraq depicted factories for weapons of mass destruction in contradiction of the evidence resulting from ground inspections by the United Nations;
4. George W. Bush stating that "Saddam Hussein recently sought significant quantities of uranium from Africa" in his State of the Union Address after being told by the Central Intelligence Agency that this was untrue and that the supporting intelligence documents were forged;
5. Influencing, manipulating and distorting intelligence related to Iraq with the intention of using that intelligence to support their goal of invading Iraq;
6. Invading Iraq with military forces of the United States of America, sacrificing the lives of over two thousand American soldiers and killing over 20,000 Iraqi civilians and conscripts;
7. Rejecting peaceful resolution by acts of United Nations compliance by Saddam Hussein; and

WHEREAS, George W. Bush has ordered the federalization and deployment of our state's National Guard members overseas and thus has exceeded his authority granted in the Constitution of the United States, which Constitution, under Section 15 of Article I, gives the Congress of the United States the power to "provide for calling forth the Militia to execute the laws of the Union, to suppress insurrections and repel invasions;" and

WHEREAS, the federalization and deployment of our state's National Guard members has rendered the National Guard force less able to carry out its state activities effectively and thus depriving the state of its Constitutional power to keep the National Guard for defense of our state; and,

WHEREAS, George W. Bush and Richard Cheney conspired to commit the torture of prisoners in violation of the "Federal Torture Act" (18 U.S.C. Sec.2340A), the United Nations Convention Against Torture and Convention III of the Geneva Conventions, which, under Article VI of the Constitution of the United States of America, are part of the "supreme Law of the Land"; and

WHEREAS, George W. Bush and Richard Cheney have acted to strip citizens of the United States of America of their constitutional rights by ordering indefinite detention without access to legal counsel, without charge and without the opportunity to appear before a civil judicial officer to challenge the detention, based solely on the discretionary designation by the President of a citizen of the United States as an "enemy combatant", all in subversion of law; and

WHEREAS, George W. Bush has admitted to ordering the National Security Agency to conduct electronic surveillance of civilians of the United States of America without seeking warrants from the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court, duly constituted by Congress in 1978, in violation of the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America and Section 1805 of Title 50 of the United States Code; and

WHEREAS, George W. Bush and Richard Cheney may have committed espionage, fraud and obstruction of justice through their involvement in the cover-up of the leak of Valerie Plame Wilson's identity; and

WHEREAS, In all of this, George W. Bush and Richard Cheney have acted in a manner contrary to their trust as President and Vice President, respectively, subversive of constitutional government to the great prejudice of the cause of law and justice, and to the manifest injury of the people of the Great State of California and of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, George W. Bush and Richard Cheney, by such conduct, warrant impeachment and trial, and removal from office;

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That our Senators and Representatives in Congress of the United States of America be, and they are hereby, requested to cause to be instituted in the Congress proper proceedings for the investigation of President George W.
